- 2.2. Joint Account. Where more than one natural person enters into this Agreement with AFEX, each natural person is jointly and severally responsible for the performance of all obligations under this Agreement and any Order. Each natural person is liable to AFEX in the event of failure to perform any of the terms of this Agreement or any Order.

The provision of Funding Balance will be provided by AFEX Inc. either directly or via AFEX Australia as the agent of AFEX Inc. Some Services described in this Agreement may not be offered at the time this Agreement is executed.
- 2.4. Execution of Order. Any Order received from Client

- will be acted upon on a commercially reasonable efforts basis only. There is no guarantee by AFEX that an Order can or will be filled or that instructions provided can or will be acted upon. AFEX may reject any Order if:
- 2.4.1. AFEX determines, in good faith and in its sole discretion, that such Order is unclear or was not authorised by Client;
  - 2.4.2. AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the Order may be contrary to law, contrary to prudent business practices, outside AFEX's risk profile, or would require AFEX to exceed the Facility granted to Client;
  - 2.4.3. Client is Insolvent or in breach of this Agreement or AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that it may not receive payment from Client in Settlement of the related Order; or
  - 2.4.4. The Order is incorrect, incomplete or unsatisfactory to AFEX for any reason.

  - 2.8. Information Sources. Market information may, from time to time, be provided to Client through AFEX. This information may be obtained from various information providers through sources believed to be reliable.   - 2.9. Orders Binding. An Order becomes binding on Client upon receipt by AFEX and creates an obligation on Client to settle the Order. Any Losses in connection with Client's failure to settle an Order are the sole responsibility of Client.
  - 2.10. Confirmations. Upon AFEX's acceptance of an Order, AFEX may issue a Confirmation to Client. The Confirmation is evidence of certain material terms of the Order. An Order will not be invalidated if for any reason the Confirmation is not issued to Client by AFEX. In such circumstances, the records of AFEX with respect to that Order will constitute conclusive evidence of the terms of the Order. If there are any discrepancies between the Order and the Confirmation, Client must notify AFEX of such discrepancy within one (1) clear Business Day of the day that AFEX sends a Confirmation, otherwise the Confirmation will constitute conclusive proof and agreement of the Parties of the details of the Order.
  - 2.11. Interest. No interest is paid by AFEX on any funds held on behalf of Client, except as may be agreed and separately documented.
  - 2.12. Means of Processing Transactions. AFEX may use whatever intermediary banks, payments systems or methods AFEX deems commercially reasonable and appropriate for processing an Order. While AFEX will make every commercially reasonable effort to ensure the timely fulfilment of each Order, AFEX is not responsible for the speed and timing of payment processing by financial institutions or systems beyond the control of AFEX. AFEX is not responsible for any errors or omissions or for any actions that may be taken or not taken, or fees that may be deducted, by any intermediary or correspondent financial institution or by the Beneficiary's financial institution in association with any Order, including any trace, cancellation or rejection.
  - 2.13. Inaccuracy or Incomplete Instruction. Client agrees that AFEX may rely on information provided by Client in processing an Order. If Client fails to provide a timely, complete, accurate or legible instruction, AFEX may place the funds in a Funding Balance pending receipt from Client of the information necessary to fulfil the Order. AFEX and its representatives shall not be liable for any Loss as a result of any such delay. Furthermore, Client agrees that any error or omission in such information, including, but not limited to, incorrect Beneficiary account number or name, Beneficiary financial institution name, or other account, international bank account number or routing number, or transit numbers, are Client's sole responsibility and liability.
  - 2.14. Cancellation and Correction. Once AFEX receives an Order, Client may not cancel the Order and is liable for all amounts owed as result. As set out above, Client may correct Order details if the Confirmation does not reflect the Order details agreed upon. If Client otherwise wishes to cancel or amend an Order, AFEX shall use commercially reasonable efforts only to do so. There is no assurance that AFEX will be able to cancel or amend an Order. Client shall indemnify and hold AFEX and its representatives harmless for any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and its representatives in attempting to cancel or amend an Order, whether or not ultimately successful.
  - 2.15. Fees. Client understands that AFEX will charge certain fees for the Services, as set forth in a fee schedule that will be provided to Client upon request. Client agrees and acknowledges that Client has agreed to the relevant fee for the Service before placing an Order. All fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any legally applicable value added tax or similar sales or turnover tax in any relevant jurisdiction.
- ### 3. SETTLEMENT
- 3.1. Payment. To fund payments that Client initiates through AFEX, Client authorises AFEX to transfer funds from the bank account indicated in any agreement between the Parties whereby Client authorises AFEX to electronically debit a bank account designated by the Client. This authority is to remain in full force and effect until AFEX has received written notification from Client of its termination in such time and manner as to afford AFEX a reasonable opportunity to act on such notification after completing all open Orders at the time of such notification.
  - 3.2. Settlement. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or agreed in writing between the Parties, Client agrees to promptly deliver the total amount of the cost to Client of an Order, including the cost of currency acquisition as well as any fees and charges related to the execution of the Delivery Instructions, to AFEX's nominated bank account in immediately available funds on or before the Value Date. If Settlement is paid to AFEX electronically, Client agrees that Settlement shall not be recallable by Client without AFEX's prior written consent. If Client fails to make immediate payment in full Settlement for an Order, AFEX has the right to suspend this Agreement; terminate this Agreement; terminate, close or unwind any Order; initiate any proceedings and take any other steps necessary to recover any Balance Due. Such steps shall be in the sole discretion of AFEX, and Client agrees: (i) that AFEX and its representatives shall have no liability to Client, and Client waives any claim or action against AFEX and its representatives; (ii) to indemnify and hold AFEX and its representatives harmless from any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and its representatives resulting from Client's failure to pay and AFEX's effort to collect any Balance Due, including any costs associated with terminating and unwinding any Order; (iii) AFEX may recover interest upon any unpaid amounts calculated at the daily rate of the indicator lending rate for business overdrafts as periodically announced by the local central bank, reserve bank, or monetary authority plus 2%. AFEX reserves the right to deduct interest, and any fees charged and costs incurred pursuant to this Agreement, from Initial and Variation Margins AFEX may hold for Client. Client acknowledges that AFEX will be entitled to notify a credit reporting body of a non-payment by Client, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988.
  - 3.3. Right of Set-off and Netting. AFEX may, without prior notice, set-off any amount owing by Client to AFEX against any other amount owing by AFEX to Client, including amounts held as Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin. In the event that any Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin is used to set-off any amounts owed by Client, Client shall immediately restore the Initial Margin and Variation Margin requirements for all Forward Contracts or Option Contracts, as required by AFEX, failing which AFEX may terminate any or all unfulfilled Orders and Client shall be responsible for all of AFEX's Losses as a result of such termination(s). Client acknowledges and consents to AFEX netting Orders for the purpose of satisfying any Margin Call issued by AFEX and/or for satisfying any shortfall incurred by AFEX on the liquidation of any or all Orders. Client acknowledges and agrees that AFEX is not obliged to net Orders for such purposes but that AFEX may do so in its sole discretion.
  - 3.4. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from AFEX and complied with this Agreement, AFEX will hold those funds until AFEX's receipt of Delivery Instructions from Client, subject to the limitations of Section 5. Client may initiate transfer of its purchased funds by providing instructions to AFEX.
  - 3.5. Electronic debits. If Client has authorised AFEX to initiate debit entries to Client's bank or other financial institution account by direct debits, Client agrees that in the case of debit instructions transmitted through the Online System, the usage of the Online System Access Method is a security procedure which constitutes a commercially reasonable method of protecting against authorised debits. Client agrees to be bound by any debit instructions, whether authorised or not, issued in its name and acted upon by AFEX, and Client agrees to indemnify AFEX and hold it harmless from any Losses incurred by any of them in connection with the execution of debit instructions believed by any of them to have been issued by a User. In the event Client elects not to use or adhere to the security procedures described herein, Client will remain liable for any debit instructions issued in its name, whether authorised or not, and acted upon by AFEX. Client agrees that AFEX and Client's financial institution(s) are authorised to credit Client's account from time to time in the event that credit adjustments become necessary.
  - 3.6. Dishonoured Settlement. In the event any funds transfer of any kind authorised by Client is dishonoured by Client's financial institution or not completed for any reason, AFEX will charge and Client agrees, unless otherwise restricted by law or regulation, to pay all processing costs, fees, penalties and liabilities incurred by AFEX as a result of such incomplete funds transfer.
  - 3.7. Settlement Extension. In the event AFEX fails to receive Settlement on or before Value Date,

AFEX may, without the consent of Client, amend the originally agreed upon Value Date to the immediately subsequent Business Day ("Settlement Extension"). Client shall pay AFEX any Losses incurred as a result of a difference between the value of the Order on the originally agreed upon Value Date and the prevailing market rate on the subsequent Business Day. AFEX reserves the right to extend the settlement date of an Order as often as needed prior to its receipt of past due Settlement. At any time prior to the Value Date, Client may request AFEX to extend the Value Date to a future Business Day ("Settlement Extension Request"). Client must have an underlying business purpose for each Settlement Extension Request. All Settlement Extension Requests are subject to the approval of AFEX. AFEX may decline a Settlement Extension Request in its sole discretion for any reason. In the event of AFEX's acceptance of a Settlement Extension Request, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and any fee assessed by AFEX to Client in connection with its fulfilment of the Settlement Extension Request.

4. DIRECT DEBIT PAYMENT

- 4.1. Direct Debit Payment. AFEX may, with the consent of Client, initiate debit entries to a specified deposit account held by Client at a commercial banking institution ("Direct Debit Payment"). Client acknowledges and agrees any Direct Debit Payments will be subject to the Australian Payments Clearing Association's direct debit system rules and banking practice codes.
- 4.2. Deposit Account Information. Client shall furnish certain deposit account information, including, without limitation, bank account number and bank routing number for each Direct Debit Payment election. Client represents that all deposit account information provided to AFEX is accurate. Client further represents that Client is the sole owner of the deposit account whose number or bank routing number is provided for the Direct Debit Payment and that Client possesses the authority to withdraw funds from the deposit account without the approval or participation of other person(s).
- 4.3. Sufficient Funds. When Client elects to make Payment for Services by Direct Debit Payment, Client warrants that the deposit account maintains sufficient funds to fully cover the value of the Order.
- 4.4. Losses. Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses and expenses incurred by AFEX in connection with the Direct Debit Payment. AFEX and its representatives are not liable for any fees assessed by Client's commercial banking institution for the Direct Debit Payment.
- 4.5. Notice. Client shall provide immediate written notice to AFEX in the event that it closes the deposit account used for Direct Debit Payment.

5. FUNDING BALANCE

- 5.1. Funds Applied to Client's Funding Balance. AFEX Australia will credit all funds purchased by Client or paid to it by Client, or a third party on Client's behalf for Incoming Payments, as defined below, to a Funding Balance. Client acknowledges and agrees that Client's funds credited to a Funding Balance in Australian Dollars will be held by AFEX Australia and funds held in another currency will be held by AFEX Inc. as nominee for Client. Client further acknowledges that AFEX shall not pay interest to Client on Funding Balance.
- 5.2. Funding Balance Limits. Funds may be maintained in Client's Funding Balance for a maximum of ninety (90) days. Client shall be responsible for all risks, including, without limitation, volatility of the Foreign Currency market, associated with maintaining Funding Balances in one or more Foreign Currency.
- 5.3. Return of Funds. In the event that this Agreement is terminated for any reason, or in the event that funds are maintained in Client's Funding Balance beyond the maximum ninety (90) day period permitted above, AFEX may convert funds that are held in Client's Funding Balance into Australian Dollars at the then-prevailing exchange rate(s) and return such funds to Client.

- 5.4. Treatment of Funding Balance. Client authorises AFEX to combine Client's Funding Balance with funds held on behalf of other AFEX clients (collectively "Pooled Funding Balances") provided that AFEX maintains sufficient accounting records to determine the funds held for the benefit of Client. AFEX will not use Funding Balance or Pooled Funding Balances for operating expenses or any other corporate purpose other than its provision of Services to AFEX clients, including Client.
- 5.5. Unclaimed Funding Balance. Dependent on the jurisdiction of Client, legislation or regulation may set out obligations and processes where Funding Balance may be considered abandoned. AFEX will be bound by any applicable legislation or regulation governing the treatment of abandoned Funding Balance. Unless prohibited, AFEX may charge all costs and expenses of any notice, advertisement, payment and delivery of the Funding Balance to the applicable governing agency, against the Funding Balance prior to remitting in accordance with the legislation or regulation. If AFEX has remitted the Funding Balance in accordance with the legislative or regulatory requirements, AFEX has no further liability to Client and Client must apply to the appropriate governing agency to reclaim the Funding Balance.

6. FORWARD CONTRACTS AND OPTION CONTRACTS

- 6.1. Risks Involved. Client acknowledges and agrees that the Foreign Currency markets are volatile. Client expressly accepts the risk that the value of the currencies in a Forward Contract may change between the date of the Order and the Balance Due Date. Further, Client expressly accepts that a Premium is not refundable and that a loss will result to the Client if the option is not exercised or if the gain on exercise of the option is less than the Premium.
- 6.2. Delivery of Funds. Once Settlement has been received by AFEX with respect to a Forward Contract or Option Contract, AFEX will deliver the funds in accordance with the Order or, if no such Delivery Instruction is provided, will credit Client's Funding Balance.
- 6.3. Drawdown. Subject to this Agreement, Client may draw down against a Window Forward Contract during the Delivery Window provided that AFEX has received Settlement in immediately available funds corresponding to the amount of the drawdown. Notwithstanding any drawdown, Client is required to provide full Settlement, or any remaining balance, to AFEX in good cleared funds in connection with a Forward Contract on or before the end of the Value Date. AFEX may, in its discretion, apply to any drawdown any rate of exchange that it deems reasonably appropriate.
- 6.4. Option Contracts. Client may authorize AFEX to enter into an Option Contract so long as AFEX has determined Client to be a Permitted Counterparty. AFEX may require Client to provide certain documentation, including without limitation, financial account statements and certifications, in order to reach a determination on Client's status as a Permitted Counterparty. Each Option Contract will be governed by the provisions of this Agreement in addition to the terms set out in the Option Contract.
- 6.5. Payment of Premium. Buyer must pay to the Seller the Premium in cleared funds on the Premium Payment Date in accordance with the Seller's instructions. The Premium is nonrefundable. If the Buyer fails to pay the Premium in full on or before the Premium Payment Date, the Seller is not obliged to exercise the Option Contract and may terminate the Option Contract and recover all Losses incurred in connection with the Option Contract, including payment of the Premium, which shall remain due and payable. For the avoidance of doubt, the payment of the Premium is separate and distinct from any payment obligations that arise upon exercise of an Option Contract.

- 6.6. Premium Amounts. Upon placing an Order for an Option Contract, AFEX may require, in its sole discretion, Client to pay to AFEX a Premium. Should Client fail to pay any Premium within 24 hours of AFEX's demand, or within such other time as otherwise specified by AFEX, AFEX may, in its sole discretion, cancel the Option Contract or complete the Order. In such circumstances, Client will be liable to AFEX for any Losses but will not be entitled to any profit.
  - 6.7. Exercise. The Buyer may exercise an Option Contract by giving a notice of exercise to the Seller. The notice of exercise of an Option Contract must be given on the expiration date of the Option Contract and not later than the expiration time as specified in the Option Contract. The Seller must accept the notice of exercise provided that any applicable Premium has been paid. Unless Client provides AFEX with a Delivery Instruction to the contrary, if Client is the Buyer of an Option Contract that is ITM on the expiration date of the Option Contract, AFEX will exercise the Option Contract provided that any applicable Premium has been paid and Client is not otherwise in breach of this Agreement.
  - 6.8. Termination of an Option Contract or Forward Contract. In the event of a Termination Event, AFEX may, without notice, immediately terminate the relevant Option Contract or Forward Contract and/or any other outstanding Option Contract or Forward Contract agreed to between the Parties without any liability to AFEX or its representatives and/or take any other steps AFEX deems appropriate, including any actions contemplated in this Agreement to mitigate the potential Loss(es). In the event of such a Termination Event, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within five (5) clear Business Days the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX in connection with the termination and unwinding of the Option Contract(s) and Forward Contract(s). Where an Option Contract and/or Forward Contract has been terminated, Client agrees that AFEX's sole liability to Client is to return any amounts Client paid to AFEX that remain after deducting all amounts owed to AFEX. Client understands and agrees that Client cannot terminate an Option Contract or Forward Contract, except as contemplated in this clause.
- #### 7. DERIVATIVE REPORTING
- 7.1. Reporting. Client acknowledges and agrees that AFEX is required to report certain completed Orders and open trade positions to certain regulators under Reporting Requirements.
- #### 8. MARGIN
- 8.1. Initial Margin Requirement. AFEX may, in its sole discretion, require Client: (i) to provide Initial Margin in relation to any Option Contract or Forward Contract within twenty-four (24) hours of Client's instructions to enter into an Option Contract or Forward Contract; and/or (ii) to provide Initial Margin, if not already provided, within one (1) clear Business Day at any time during the term of an Option Contract or Forward Contract.
  - 8.2. Variation Margin Requirement. If AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the net market value of all of Client's open Orders has declined and the unrealized loss when marked to market exceeds 10% or an alternative percentage or fixed amount as AFEX may advise, of the notional value of the open Orders, Client is required to post with AFEX Variation Margin as stated in the Margin Call issued by AFEX. Each time the net market value of all of Client's open Orders declines and the unrealized loss when marked to market further increases, AFEX may issue a Margin Call whereby Client is required to post with AFEX additional Variation Margin in the amount stated in the Margin Call within one (1) clear Business Day. Payment of Variation Margin is due on or before the close of business on the next Business Day after the day

- AFEX issues Margin Call to Client.
- 8.3. Valuation of Orders. Orders are marked to market using prevailing market rates provided from a reputable financial data provider. AFEX reserves the right to change the financial data provider at any time without notice to Client.
- 8.4. Return of Variation Margin. If the unrealized loss of all open Orders with AFEX by Client falls below the Variation Margin requirements established elsewhere in this Agreement, based on AFEX's computation on any Business Day, then Client may request that AFEX return to it the difference between the unrealized loss of all open Orders and the Variation Margin held by AFEX on that Business Day. Any such request must be made, in writing, before 12 p.m., AFEX Local Time, on the same Business Day, and AFEX will process the request on the Business Day on which it was made and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned in a timely manner. Any request made after 12 p.m., AFEX Local Time, will be processed by AFEX the following Business Day and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned to Client in a timely manner.
- 8.5. Purpose of Initial Margin. Initial Margin is intended to maintain the relative value of the funds to be purchased from or sold to AFEX pursuant to an Option or Forward Contract or to address, in AFEX's sole discretion, an adverse change in Client's financial standing and/or credit worthiness or an adverse change in the external economic environment. Client acknowledges and agrees that the amount of Initial Margin will be determined by AFEX in its sole and reasonable discretion, subject to the total of any such payments being less than or equal to the total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Option or Forward Contract, and that AFEX may require Initial Margin to be made even if AFEX has provided Client with a Facility. Any Initial Margin delivered by Client and received by AFEX are non-refundable and will be applied to satisfy Client's total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Option Contract or Forward Contract on the Value Date or on the date of any final Drawdown or any other amount permitted by this Agreement.

THE PARTIES AGREE THIS LIMITATION REPRESENTS A REASONABLE ALLOCATION OF RISK, WITHOUT WHICH AFEX WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT. THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

- STATED IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL HAVE EFFECT TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.
- 21.2. AFEX's Liability. AFEX's and its representatives' liability under this Agreement for any breach by it shall be limited to the currency value of the impugned Order as at the Order date only.

- 23.5. The Parties agree that Section 24 shall not prevent AFEX Australia from seeking payment for unsettled Orders through the use of a collection agency duly registered in the relevant province or territory. Should recovery not be successful through the collection agency process, the Parties shall subsequently attorn to the process set out in Section 24.
- 23.6. The Client may, at any time, address a dispute to the Financial Ombudsman Service ("FOS") (GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001, phone: 1800 367 287, fax: (03) 9613 6399, email: info@fos.org.au).
