For the avoidance of doubt, each order for which AFEX issues a Confirmation will constitute an independent contract, governed by the terms of the Agreement.
- 2.2. Provision of Services. Where any of the Services involve the conversion of amounts from one currency into another currency and the remittance of funds to the designated Beneficiary, AFEX will provide such Services as principal.
- 2.3. Applicability of the Regulations to Corporates that are not Micro-Enterprises or Small Charities.
  - 2.3.1. This Clause only applies to Corporates that are not Micro-Enterprises or Small Charities.
  - 2.3.2. The Parties acknowledge and agree that Part 5 and regulations 66(1), 67(3) and 67(4),

- 75,77,80,83,91,92 and 94 of the Regulations do not apply to this Agreement.
- 2.3.3. In the event that the Client becomes either a Micro-Enterprise or a Small Charity, the Client shall notify AFEX immediately.
- 2.4. Execution of Order. Any Order received from Client will be acted upon on a commercially reasonable efforts basis only. There is no guarantee by AFEX that an Order can or will be filled or that instructions provided can or will be acted upon. AFEX may reject any Order if:
- 2.4.1. AFEX determines, in good faith and in its sole discretion, that such Order was not authorised by Client or a User;
- 2.4.2. AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the Order may be contrary to law, contrary to prudent business practices, outside AFEX's risk profile, or would require AFEX to exceed the Facility granted to Client;
- 2.4.3. Client is Insolvent or in default of the Agreement or AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that it may not receive payment from Client in Settlement of the related Order; or
- 2.4.4. The Order is unclear, incorrect, incomplete or unsatisfactory to AFEX for any reason.
- 2.5. Reliance on Instruction. AFEX is hereby authorised by Client to accept, act and rely upon any instruction, whether oral or written, that AFEX reasonably believes to have been made by, or on behalf of Client. AFEX and its representatives are not liable for any Losses Client may suffer as a result of the misconduct of User(s) or any other person purporting to act on behalf of Client.
- 2.6. Audio Recording. An audio record of any or all oral Orders, and any other oral communications between the Parties, including Users, may be taken and maintained by AFEX, and Client hereby expressly authorises and agrees to the taking and maintaining of such records. All audio recordings are AFEX's sole property, subject to applicable law. Client agrees that such recordings may be relied upon by AFEX in the event of any dispute.
- 2.7. No Advice. Client represents that each Order entered into by Client will be based upon Client's own judgment and that Client is not relying on any communication of AFEX or its representatives as investment advice, as a recommendation to enter into a transaction or as an assurance of expected results. Client acknowledges that AFEX is not acting as a fiduciary or advisor to Client in respect of any Order.
- 2.8. Information Sources. Market information may, from time to time, be provided to Client through AFEX. This information may be obtained from various information providers through sources believed to be reliable. AFEX does not guarantee the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, or fitness for a particular purpose of any market information provided through AFEX. - 2.10. Confirmations. Upon AFEX's acceptance of an Order, AFEX may issue a Confirmation to Client. The Confirmation is evidence of certain material terms of the Order. An Order will not be invalidated if for any reason the Confirmation is not issued to Client by AFEX. In such circumstances, the records of AFEX with respect to that Order will constitute conclusive evidence of the terms of the Order. If there are any discrepancies between the Order and the Confirmation, Client must notify AFEX of such discrepancy within one (1) clear Business Day of the day that AFEX sends a Confirmation, otherwise the Confirmation will constitute conclusive proof and agreement of the Parties of the details of the Order.
- 2.11. Interest. No interest is paid by AFEX on any funds held on behalf of Client, except as may be agreed and separately documented.
- 2.12. Means of Processing Transactions. AFEX may use whatever intermediary banks, payments systems or methods AFEX deems commercially reasonable and appropriate for processing an Order. Client agrees to be bound by applicable law, regulations, clearing house rules or other rules or procedures of any funds transfer or communications system that is used. While AFEX will make every commercially reasonable effort to ensure the timely fulfilment of each Order, AFEX is not responsible for the speed and timing of payment processing by financial institutions or systems beyond the control of AFEX. AFEX is not responsible for any errors or omissions or for any actions that may be taken or not taken, or fees that may be deducted, by any intermediary or correspondent financial institution or by the Beneficiary's financial institution in association with any Order, including any cancellation or rejection.
- 2.13. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from AFEX and complied with this Agreement, AFEX will hold those funds until AFEX's receipt of payment instructions from Client. AFEX will accept an instruction from Client to perform a Payment Transaction by mail, electronic mail, facsimile, telephone or Online System and instructions must include, but not limited to, date, amount in the applicable currency and beneficiary details, including beneficiary's bank details. The Client's instruction will be treated by AFEX as the Client's consent to execute that Payment Transaction.
- 2.14. Inaccuracy or Incomplete Instruction. Client agrees that AFEX may rely on information provided by Client in processing an Order (including a Payment Transaction). If Client fails to provide a timely, complete, accurate or legible instruction, AFEX may place the funds in a Funding Balance pending receipt from Client of the information necessary to fulfil the Order (including a Payment Transaction). AFEX and its representatives shall not be liable for any Loss as a result of any such delay. Furthermore, Client agrees that any error or omission in such information, including, but not limited to, incorrect Beneficiary account number or name, Beneficiary financial institution name, or other account, international bank account number or routing number, or transit numbers, are Client's sole responsibility and liability.
- 2.15. Processing times for Payment Transactions.
- 2.15.1. This Clause 2.16 and its sub-clauses apply only to Micro-Enterprises and Small Charities.
- 2.15.2. AFEX agrees to process transactions for the Client in accordance with the Client's instructions on the same day the instructions are received by AFEX, if the Instruction is received before 15.00 AFEX Local Time. Instructions received after 15.00 AFEX Local Time or on a day other than a Business Day will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.
- 2.15.3. AFEX will provide the Client with the maximum execution time of the payment by AFEX and a breakdown of charges payable by Client where applicable. AFEX cannot be responsible for any delays due to the processing of the Payment Transaction by the Beneficiary's payment service provider. The delivery of the payment can be affected by public holiday or working hours of foreign payment service providers in other jurisdictions to which the Payment Transaction has been remitted. AFEX reserves the right to reject or stop processing any Order that is incorrect or incomplete, or where AFEX has a right or obligation to do so pursuant to applicable law or regulation.
- 2.16. Cancellation and Correction.
- 2.16.1. This Clause 2.17.1 applies only to Micro-Enterprises and Small Charities. Once AFEX has received the Client's instruction to perform a Payment Transaction, the Client may only cancel the Payment Transaction where the Client provides AFEX clear written notice not to proceed with the Payment Transaction which is received by AFEX no later than the end of the last Business Day before the Payment Transaction was due to take place. For the avoidance of doubt, if the instructions in the Client's notice are unclear, AFEX will not treat the Client's consent to the Payment Transaction as being withdrawn and will proceed with the Payment Transaction.
- 2.16.2. This clause 2.17.2 applies to Clients who are not Micro-Enterprises or Small Charities. Without prejudice to Clause 2.17.1, once AFEX accepts an Order, the Client may not cancel the Order and is liable for all amounts owed as result. As set out above, Client may correct Order details if the Confirmation does not reflect the Order details agreed upon. If Client otherwise wishes to cancel or amend an Order, AFEX shall use commercially reasonable efforts only to do so. There is no assurance that AFEX will be able to cancel or amend an Order.
- 2.17. Fees. Client understands that AFEX will charge certain fees for the Services, as set forth in a fee schedule made available to Client. Client agrees and acknowledges that Client has agreed to the relevant fee for the Service before placing an Order. AFEX may change the fees charged for the Services in its sole discretion at any time upon notice to Client, effective from the date of the notice, or as soon as permitted by applicable law. Client further agrees and acknowledges that all fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any legally applicable value added tax or similar sales or turnover tax in any relevant jurisdiction.

3. SETTLEMENT

- 3.1. Payment. To fund payments that Client initiates through AFEX, Client authorises AFEX to transfer funds from the bank account indicated in any agreement between the Parties whereby Client authorises AFEX to electronically debit a bank account designated by the Client. This authority is to remain in full force and effect until AFEX has received written notification from Client of its termination in such time and manner as to afford AFEX a reasonable opportunity to act on such notification after completing all open Orders at the time of such notification.
- 3.2. Settlement. Unless otherwise provided in the Agreement or agreed in writing between the Parties, Client agrees to promptly deliver the total amount of the cost to Client of an Order, including the cost of currency acquisition as well as any fees and charges related to the execution of the Delivery Instructions, to AFEX's nominated bank account in immediately available funds on or before the Value Date. If Settlement is paid to AFEX electronically, Client agrees that Settlement shall not be recallable by Client without AFEX's prior written consent. If Client fails to make immediate payment in full Settlement for an Order, AFEX has the right to suspend the Agreement; terminate the Agreement; terminate, close or unwind any Order; initiate any proceedings and take any other steps necessary to recover any Balance Due. Such steps shall be in the sole discretion of AFEX. The Client acknowledges and agrees: (i) that AFEX and its representatives shall have no liability to Client, and Client waives any claim or action against AFEX and its representatives; (ii) to indemnify and hold AFEX and its representatives harmless from any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and its representatives resulting from Client's failure to pay and AFEX's effort to collect any Balance Due, including any costs associated with terminating and unwinding any Order; (iii) AFEX may recover interest upon any unpaid amounts calculated at the daily rate of the indicator lending rate for business overdrafts as periodically announced by the local central bank, reserve bank, or monetary authority plus 2%. AFEX reserves the right to deduct interest, and any fees charged and costs incurred pursuant to this Agreement, from Initial Margins and Variation Margins AFEX may hold for Client. Client acknowledges that AFEX will be entitled to notify a credit reporting body of non-payment by Client, in accordance with any applicable privacy legislation.

- 3.3. Right of Set-off and Netting. AFEX may, without prior notice, set-off any amount owing by Client to AFEX against any other amount owing by AFEX to Client, including amounts held as Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin. In the event that any Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin is used to set-off any amounts owed by Client, Client shall immediately restore the Initial Margin and Variation Margin requirements for all Forward Contracts, as required by AFEX, failing which AFEX may terminate any or all unfulfilled Orders and Client shall be responsible for all of AFEX's Losses as a result of such termination(s). Client acknowledges and consents to AFEX netting Orders for the purpose of satisfying any Margin Call issued by AFEX and/or for satisfying any shortfall incurred by AFEX on the liquidation of any or all Orders. Client acknowledges and agrees that AFEX is not obliged to net Orders for such purposes but that AFEX may do so in its sole discretion.
- 3.4. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from AFEX and complied with this Agreement, AFEX UK or AFEX Inc. will hold those funds until AFEX's receipt of Delivery Instructions from Client. Client may initiate transfer of its purchased funds by providing instructions to AFEX.
- 3.5. Electronic debits. If Client has authorised AFEX to initiate debit entries to Client's bank or other financial institution account by direct debits, Client agrees that in the case of debit instructions transmitted through the Online System, the usage of the Online System Access Method is a security procedure which constitutes a commercially reasonable method of protecting against unauthorised debits. Client agrees to be bound by any debit instructions, whether authorised or not, issued in its name and acted upon by AFEX. In the event Client elects not to use or adhere to the security procedures described herein, Client will remain liable for any debit instructions issued in its name, whether authorised or not, and acted upon by AFEX. Client agrees that AFEX and Client's financial institution(s) are authorised to credit Client's account from time to time in the event that credit adjustments become necessary. Client agrees to indemnify AFEX and hold it harmless from any Losses incurred by any of them in connection with the execution of debit instructions believed by any of them to have been issued by a User.
- 3.6. Dishonoured Settlement. In the event any funds transfer of any kind authorised by Client is dishonoured by Client's financial institution or not completed for any reason, AFEX will charge and Client agrees, unless otherwise restricted by law or regulation, to pay all processing costs, fees, penalties and liabilities incurred by AFEX as a result of such incomplete funds transfer.
- 3.7. Settlement Extension. In the event AFEX fails to receive Settlement on or before Value Date, AFEX may, without the consent of Client, amend the originally agreed upon Value Date to the immediately subsequent Business Day ("Settlement Extension"). Client shall pay AFEX any Losses incurred as a result of a difference between the value of the Order on the originally agreed upon Value Date and the prevailing market rate on the subsequent Business Day. AFEX reserves the right to extend the settlement date of an Order as often as needed prior to its receipt of past due Settlement. At any time prior to the Value Date, Client may request AFEX to extend the Value Date to a future Business Day ("Settlement Extension Request"). Client must have an underlying business purpose for each Settlement Extension Request. All Settlement Extension Requests are subject to the approval of AFEX. AFEX may decline a Settlement Extension Request in its sole discretion for any reason. In the event of AFEX's acceptance of a Settlement Extension Request, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and any fee assessed by AFEX to Client in connection with its fulfilment of the Settlement Extension Request.

4. DIRECT DEBIT PAYMENT

- 4.1. Direct Debit Payment. AFEX may, with the consent of Client, initiate debit entries to a specified deposit account held by Client at a commercial banking institution ("Direct Debit Payment").

Client represents that all deposit account information provided to AFEX is accurate. Client further represents that Client is the sole owner of the deposit account whose number or bank routing number is provided for the Direct Debit Payment and that Client possesses the authority to withdraw funds from the deposit account without the approval or participation of other person(s).
- 4.3. Sufficient Funds. When Client elects to make Payment for Services by Direct Debit Payment, Client warrants that the deposit account maintains sufficient funds to fully cover the value of the Order.
- 4.4. Losses. Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses and expenses incurred by AFEX in connection with the Direct Debit Payment. AFEX and its representatives are not liable for any fees assessed by Client's commercial banking institution for the Direct Debit Payment.
- 4.5. Notice. Client shall provide immediate written notice to AFEX in the event that it closes the deposit account used for Direct Debit Payment.

5. FUNDING BALANCE

- 5.1. Funds Applied to Client's Funding Balance. AFEX will credit all funds purchased by Client or paid to it by Client, or a third party on Client's behalf for Incoming Payments, as defined below, to a Funding Balance. If it does so, the funds will be held by AFEX as nominee for Client.
- 5.2. Funding Balance Limits. Funds may be maintained in Client's Funding Balance for a maximum of ninety (90) days. Client shall be responsible for all risks, including, without limitation, volatility of the Foreign Currency market, associated with maintaining Funding Balances in one or more Foreign Currency.
- 5.3. Treatment of Funding Balance. AFEX Inc. may combine Client's Funding Balance with funds held on behalf of other AFEX clients (collectively "Pooled Funding Balances"). AFEX shall maintain sufficient accounting records to determine the funds held for the benefit of Client. AFEX Inc. will not use Funding Balance or Pooled Funding Balances for operating expenses or any other corporate purpose other than its provision of Services to AFEX clients, including Client.
- 5.4. Repayment on termination. In the event that the Agreement is terminated for any reason, or in the event that funds are maintained in Client's Funding Balance beyond the maximum ninety (90) day period permitted above, AFEX may convert funds that are held in Client's Funding Balance into Client's base currency at the then-prevailing exchange rate(s) and return such funds to Client.
- 5.5. Unclaimed Funding Balance. Dependent on the jurisdiction of Client, legislation or regulation may set out obligations and processes where Funding Balance may be considered abandoned. AFEX will be bound by any applicable legislation or regulation governing the treatment of abandoned Funding Balance. Unless prohibited, AFEX may charge all costs and expenses of any notice, advertisement, payment and delivery of the Funding Balance to the applicable governing agency, against the Funding Balance prior to remitting in accordance with the legislation or regulation. If AFEX has remitted the Funding Balance in accordance with the legislative or regulatory requirements, AFEX has no further liability to Client and Client must apply to the appropriate governing agency to reclaim the Funding Balance.

6. FORWARD CONTRACTS

- 6.1. Risks Involved. Client acknowledges and agrees that the Foreign Currency markets are volatile. Client expressly accepts the risk that the value of the currencies in a Forward Contract may change between the date of the Order and the Balance Due Date.
- 6.2. Delivery of Funds. Once Settlement has been received by AFEX with respect to a Forward Contract, AFEX will deliver the funds in accordance with the Order or, if no such Delivery Instruction is provided, will credit Client's Funding Balance.
- 6.3. Draw Down. Subject to the Agreement, Client may draw down against a Window Forward Contract during the Delivery Window provided that AFEX has received Settlement in immediately available funds corresponding to the amount of the draw down. Notwithstanding any draw down, Client is required to provide full Settlement, or any remaining balance, to AFEX in good cleared funds in connection with a Forward Contract on or before the end of the Value Date. AFEX may, in its discretion, apply to any draw down any rate of exchange that it deems reasonably appropriate.
- 6.4. Termination of a Forward Contract. In the event of a Termination Event, AFEX may, without notice, immediately terminate the relevant Forward Contract and/or any other outstanding Forward Contract agreed to between the Parties without any liability to AFEX or its representatives and/or take any other steps AFEX deems appropriate, including any actions contemplated in this Agreement to mitigate the potential Loss(es). In the event of such a Termination Event, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within five (5) clear Business Days the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX in connection with the termination and Forward Contract(s). Where a Forward Contract has been terminated, Client agrees that AFEX's sole liability to Client is to return any amounts Client paid to AFEX that remain after deducting all amounts owed to AFEX. Client understands and agrees that Client cannot terminate or Forward Contract, except as contemplated in this clause.

MARGIN

- 6.5. Initial Margin Requirement. AFEX may, in its sole discretion, require Client: (i) to provide Initial Margin in relation to any Forward Contract within twenty-four (24) hours of Client's instructions to enter into a Forward Contract; and/or (ii) to provide Initial Margin, if not already provided, within one (1) clear Business Day at any time during the term of a Forward Contract.
- 6.6. Variation Margin Requirement. If AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the net market value of all of Client's open Orders has declined and the unrealized loss when marked to market exceeds 10% or an alternative percentage or fixed amount as AFEX may advise, of the notional value of the open Orders. Client is required to post with AFEX Variation Margin as stated in the Margin Call issued by AFEX. Each time the net market value of all of Client's open Orders declines and the unrealized loss when marked to market further increases, AFEX may issue a Margin Call whereby Client is required to post additional Variation Margin in the amount stated in the Margin Call within one (1) clear Business Day. Payment of Variation Margin is due on or before the close of business on the next Business Day after the day AFEX issues Margin Call to Client.
- 6.7. Valuation of Orders. Forward Contracts are marked to market using prevailing market rates provided from a reputable financial data provider. AFEX reserves the right to change the financial data provider at any time without notice to Client.
- 6.8. Acknowledgement. In providing Initial Margin and Variation Margin to AFEX, Client agrees that such monies: (i) may be used by AFEX in the ordinary course of AFEX's business; (ii) will not

- be maintained by AFEX in a segregated account; and (iii) shall not be subject to a trust, deemed or otherwise, in Client's favour, and that Client's right to have the amount of the Initial Margin and Variation Margin, credited in Client's favour on maturity date of Client's Forward Contract represents an unsecured claim against AFEX and does not represent a claim, by way of trust or otherwise, to the Initial Margin or Variation Margin amounts or to any assets of or under the control of AFEX.
- 6.9. Return of Variation Margin. If the unrealised loss of all open Forward Contracts with AFEX by Client falls below the Variation Margin requirements established elsewhere in this Agreement, based on AFEX's computation on any Business Day, then Client may request that AFEX return to it the difference between the unrealised loss of all open Forward Contracts and the Variation Margin held by AFEX on that Business Day. Any such request must be made, in writing, before 12.00, AFEX Local Time, on the same Business Day, and AFEX will process the request on the Business Day on which it was made and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned in a timely manner. Any request made after 12.00 AFEX Local Time, will be processed by AFEX the following Business Day and the Variation Margin will be returned to Client in a timely manner.
- 6.10. Purpose of Initial Margin. Initial Margin is intended to maintain the relative value of the funds to be purchased from or sold to AFEX pursuant to an Forward Contract or to address, in AFEX' sole discretion, an adverse change in Client's financial standing and/or credit worthiness or an adverse change in the external economic environment. Client acknowledges and agrees that the amount of Initial Margin will be determined by AFEX in its sole and reasonable discretion, subject to the total of any such payments being less than or equal to the total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Forward Contract, and that AFEX may require Initial Margin to be made even if AFEX has provided Client with a Facility. Any Initial Margin delivered by Client and received by AFEX are non-refundable and will be applied to satisfy Client's total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Forward Contract on the Value Date or on the date of any final Draw Down or any other amount permitted by the Agreement.
- 6.11. Remedy for Failure to Honour Initial Margin or Variation Margin Requirements. If AFEX does not receive Initial Margin or Variation Margin when due, AFEX, at its option and in its sole discretion, may close out any or all of Client's open Orders and apply the proceeds first to reimburse AFEX for the amounts due under the Orders, including all Losses, and remit the balance of the proceeds, if any, to Client. If the proceeds of disposition are insufficient to fully satisfy the amount owing to AFEX, then Client shall pay to AFEX the difference within one (1) clear Business Day.
- 7. INCOMING PAYMENT AND RETURNED CHEQUES AND DRAFTS
- 7.1. Incoming Payment.
- 7.1.1. AFEX may receive domestic or Foreign Currency from a third party for payment on behalf of Client ("Incoming Payment") or for further credit to Client's Funding Balance, in the form of an incoming draft, wire or cheque. Cash cannot and will not be accepted from any source.
- 7.1.2. AFEX reserves the right to withhold credit for any Incoming Payment until AFEX, in AFEX's sole discretion, is satisfied that cleared funds have been received. In the event that any Incoming Payment is subsequently recalled, returned to AFEX as non-negotiable or for insufficient funds or is otherwise not accepted by AFEX's depository financial institution, such Incoming Payment will be returned to Client. The Client agrees to indemnify AFEX and its representatives in respect of Losses incurred by AFEX, including any foreign exchange Losses, charges and fees in handling the returned, unaccepted or recalled Incoming Payment. Client acknowledges and agrees that AFEX is relying upon this indemnity in providing value in exchange for any Foreign Currency draft or cheque.
- 7.1.3. The form in which AFEX credits the Incoming Payment to Client shall be subject to instructions from Client as documented in an Order or Delivery Instructions.
- 7.1.4. Client shall require that the third party payer specify Client's full legal name and account number, as designated by AFEX, in the memo or reference line of any such Incoming Payment. AFEX may in its sole discretion, attempt to contact the third party sender to secure any additional information that may be needed to ensure accurate processing of the Incoming Payment.
- 8. DRAFTS AND CHEQUES
- 8.1. Foreign Currency Drafts and Cheque Purchase. AFEX may agree to purchase and convert a Foreign Currency draft(s) and cheque(s) that Client has received in its name and delivered to AFEX. AFEX may request additional information satisfactory to AFEX, in its sole discretion, that Client has the authority to deliver the Foreign Currency draft and cheque to AFEX for purposes of Foreign Currency conversion and negotiation.
- 8.2. Endorsement. Any Foreign Currency draft(s) and cheque(s) delivered to AFEX for the purpose of purchase and conversion must be endorsed to AFEX, without restriction or qualification, by an authorised representative of Client.
- 9. RATE ORDER
- 9.1. Rate Order. If Client instructs AFEX to execute an Order when a particular exchange rate is at a specified or better rate (a "Rate Order"), Client authorises AFEX to act in accordance with the instructions and to purchase or sell currencies on behalf of Client. Each Rate Order will only be effective after AFEX has had a commercially reasonable opportunity to act upon it. The effective period of the Rate Order ("Effective Period"), as communicated to AFEX in the Order, and accepted by AFEX in an Order, shall be deemed to be good until cancelled unless Client provided a fixed ascertainable date for the end of the Effective Period.
- 9.2. Rate Order Purchase or Termination. AFEX will provide Client with a summary of the material terms of each Rate Order. If the terms of the Rate Order are met during the Effective Period, AFEX will issue Client a Confirmation. If the terms of the Rate Order are not met by the end of the Effective Period, the Rate Order will expire. Client agrees to promptly review each summary and Confirmation for accuracy and immediately notify AFEX of any error or discrepancy.
- 9.3. Cancellation of a Rate Order. To cancel a Rate Order, AFEX must receive an instruction directing cancellation and have had a commercially reasonable opportunity to act upon such instruction. In the absence of such instruction, AFEX will attempt to fill the Rate Order and Client will be liable for Settlement.
- 9.4. Target Rate. If the exchange rate specified in the Rate Order ("Target Rate") does not become sustainable and purchasable during the Effective Period, the Rate Order will automatically expire at the end of the Effective Period. The Target Rate must be traded in the market with volume sufficient to sustain that rate level for a commercially reasonable timeframe. Unless otherwise stated by AFEX, Orders will remain in force until 7:59 a.m. AFEX Local Time on the last day of the Effective Period.
- 10. ERRORS AND DISCREPANCIES
- 10.1. Errors and Discrepancies.
- 10.1.1. Client must promptly review each Confirmation, report, or other reporting or advisory communication regarding Orders or transaction history sent by AFEX and promptly notify AFEX of any error, discrepancy, irregularity or unauthorised activity.
- 10.1.2. Client may not assert any claim against AFEX or its representatives in connection with any errors, discrepancies or irregularities if Client did not exercise reasonable care in examining any such communication which reflected such errors, discrepancies or irregularities, or if Client did not notify AFEX in writing and in a reasonably prompt manner that Client disputes any information contained in, or missing from, any communication.
- 10.1.3. Client shall provide AFEX with all information necessary for AFEX to investigate the error, discrepancy or irregularity.
- 11. PREPAID CARD
- 11.1. Prepaid Card. Client may elect for certain authorised individuals to receive a Prepaid Card ("Prepaid Card End User").
- 11.2. Prepaid Card End Users. Client must provide AFEX with certain identifying information for each Prepaid Card End User, including, without limitation, full legal name, residential address, and date of birth. AFEX may refuse to provide a Prepaid Card to any individual for any reason in its sole discretion. All Prepaid Card End Users must agree to separate terms and conditions governing the use of the Prepaid Card by the Prepaid Card End user, and the rights and responsibilities of Client in relation to the Prepaid Card End User.
- 11.3. Issuing Bank. The Prepaid Card is issued by an unaffiliated third party financial institution ("Issuing Bank"). All funds stored on the Prepaid Card are in the sole possession of the Issuing Bank. Pursuant to an agreement with the Issuing Bank, AFEX is strictly an independent sales organisation of the Issuing Bank. AFEX may change the Issuing Bank at any time with written notice to Client.
- 11.4. Prepaid Card Processor. The Prepaid Card is serviced by an unaffiliated third party institution ("Prepaid Card Processor"). The Prepaid Card Processor is responsible for processing all transactions initiated with the Prepaid Card. The Prepaid Card System is not owned, monitored or controlled by AFEX. AFEX may change the Prepaid Card Processor at any time with written notice to Client.
- 11.5. Prepaid Card Administrator. Client shall appoint an authorised individual to provide administrative oversight of all Prepaid Cards ("Prepaid Card Administrator"). The Prepaid Card Administrator may use the Prepaid Card System to add funds to any Prepaid Card.
- 11.6. Prepaid Card Transactions. Prior to use of the Prepaid Card, Client must add funds to the Prepaid Card. The funds available on the Prepaid Card are limited to the funds added by Client less any fees assessed by AFEX. AFEX reserves the right to block or cancel any Prepaid Card transaction if AFEX detects what is reasonably believed to be fraudulent, suspicious or criminal activity or any activity that is inconsistent with either the terms and conditions applicable to the Prepaid Card End User or the Agreement. AFEX will incur no liability to Client because of the unavailability of any blocked or cancelled funds or Prepaid Card transactions that are not completed for any reason.
- 11.7. Fees. Client understands that AFEX will charge certain fees for the addition of funds to the Prepaid Card ("Load Fee"). The Load Fee will be set forth in a fee schedule that will be made available to Client. AFEX may change the Load Fee or add other Prepaid Card maintenance fees in its sole discretion at any time upon notice to Client.
